Re: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552
Request No. 19-00932-FOIA & 19-00933-FOIA (CORRECTED COPY)

Dear Mr. Capeci:

This letter responds to your request, dated January 02, 2019, and received in this office on January 03, 2019, for "all records pertaining to the SEC's investigation into Hertz Global Holdings, Inc. ("Hertz") restatement of its financial results for fiscal years 2011 through 2013, as reported in Hertz's Form 10-K for fiscal year 2014, filed on July 16, 2015 (the "Restatement"); and (2) all records pertaining to any accounting or internal control deficiencies at Hertz during the time period of January 1, 2013 to the present." You also requested that, "the SEC produce any subsequently released records that pertain to Hertz from after May 18, 2017."

The search for responsive records has resulted in the retrieval of 12 pages of records that may be responsive to the portion of your request for released records that pertain to Hertz after May 18, 2017. They are being provided to you with this letter.

Further, we are withholding other records that may be responsive to your request under 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A). This exemption protects from disclosure records compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement activities. Since Exemption 7(A) protects the records from disclosure, we have not determined if other exemptions apply. Therefore, we reserve the right to assert other exemptions when Exemption 7(A) no longer applies.

It is the general policy of the Commission to conduct its investigations on a non-public basis. Thus, subject to the provisions of FOIA, the Commission does not disclose the existence or non-existence of an investigation or information gathered unless made a matter of public record in proceedings brought before the Commission or in the courts. Accordingly, the assertion of this exemption should not be construed as an indication by the Commission or its staff that any violations of law have occurred with respect to any person, entity, or security.

I am the deciding official with regard to this adverse determination. You have the right to appeal my decision to the SEC's General Counsel under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6), 17 CFR § 200.80(f)(1). The appeal must be received within ninety (90) calendar days of the date of this adverse decision. Your appeal must be in writing, clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal," and should identify the requested records. The appeal may include facts and authorities you consider appropriate.

You may file your appeal by completing the online Appeal form located at https://www.sec.gov/forms/request_appeal, or mail your appeal to the Office of FOIA Services of the Securities and Exchange Commission located at Station Place, 100 F Street NE, Mail Stop 2465, Washington, D.C. 20549, or deliver it to Room 1120 at that address.

If you have any questions, please contact Everene Johnson of my staff at johnsonee@sec.gov or (202) 551-8350. You may also contact me at foiapa@sec.gov or (202) 551-7900. ADDENDUM

For further assistance you can contact a SEC FOIA Public Liaison by calling (202) 551-7900 or visiting <https://www.sec.gov/oso/help/foia-contact.html>.

SEC FOIA Public Liaisons are supervisory staff within the Office of FOIA Services. They can assist FOIA requesters with general questions or concerns about the SEC's FOIA process or about the processing of their specific request.

In addition, you may also contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA dispute resolution services it offers. OGIS can be reached at 1-877-684-6448 or via e-mail at ogis@nara.gov. Information concerning services offered by OGIS can be found at their website at Archives.gov. Note that contacting the FOIA Public Liaison or OGIS does not stop the 90-day appeal clock and is not a substitute for filing an administrative appeal.
